

POLICING EASTLEIGH

PARTNERSHIP UPDATE

April 2022

Foreword from Eastleigh District Commander, Chief Inspector Marcus Cator

Welcome to the April edition of the Policing Eastleigh partnership newsletter

As District Commander, since June 2020, I have had the tremendous honour and pleasure to work with partners and the community to challenge and improve the policing in Eastleigh.

I have been asked by the Force to support a project to continue to improve our service and the outcomes that we secure for victims of crime. For the next few months, I will be seconded away from the district.

In my place Temporary Chief Inspector Paul Southam will be looking after the teams and continuing to focus on our core business of tackling drug related harm, exploitation of young people, cases involving violence against women and girls and supporting the community by focusing on the crime impacting on the local communities of Eastleigh and Hedge End.

Inspector Paul Southam has 22 years' policing experience, having transferred to Hampshire in 2004. He has completed a number of roles across the force including District Inspector in Southampton West for 3 years, and for the last 18 months, has led the Citizens in Policing Team – this includes Special Constables, Police Cadets and volunteers for the Constabulary.

Inspector Southam, said: “The majority of my policing career in Hampshire has been working in Neighbourhood Policing Team. I am really looking forward to leading the Eastleigh District and working with yourselves to focus on the key issues affecting our communities in the coming weeks and months.”

As we commence a new performance year, and I review the past 12 months, we have secured some outstanding results. With the support of the community, we secured a custodial sentence for County Lines drug dealers, we have reduced the cases of most serious violence, burglary and acquisitive crimes and reduced calls for service in relation to ASB.

Overall crime reduced by 3% across both Eastleigh and Hedge End.

With the summer months approaching, and Covid laws reducing, there will be more public events for our teams to support and engage with. Please invite them to support you.

Police teams will be trying hard to ensure they remain vigilant in tackling crime and disorder, whilst remaining visible to our communities.

We will always focus our service on those at the most risk of harm and violence and protect those who are vulnerable.

Have a safe summer and please continue to support our local officers by telling us what is going on in your communities. Stay safe, and enjoy the sun, when it arrives!

Chief Inspector, Marcus Cator

Finally, a quick reminder that our Eastleigh Police and Hedge End Facebook pages are a great way to follow the team and the work they are doing to tackle crime in the local area in order to keep our communities safe.

Community Cohesion

Investigation after cannabis factory located at property in Chandler's Ford

We are investigating after specialist officers located a cannabis factory at a business property in Renown Close in Chandler's Ford on Tuesday 5 April.

A large number of cannabis plants – approximately 500 to 600 - were located inside a commercial building and are in the process of being seized as evidence.

SSE electric have been supporting us with our enquiries and have since evaluated and ensured that the electric supply to the building has not been compromised in any way.

Our enquiries into the drug cultivation activity, and identifying those who have been residing in the property, remain ongoing at this time.

No arrests have been made at this stage.

Eastleigh District Commander, Chief Inspector Marcus Cator, said: "This police activity was conducted off the back of intelligence and information submitted to us by the local community, who were concerned about drug-related activity in their area. As a result, we have managed to take action which will hopefully go some way to disrupting local drug-related activity and protect others from drug-related harm.

"There is likely to be a large police presence in the area over the next few days while officers continue their enquiries and ascertain the exact circumstances relating to the drug cultivation activity. If anyone has any information about this, then please do engage with officers at the scene – any information, no matter how small or insignificant you think it might be, could help aid our investigation.

"We are aware that local residents will think, it's just a bit of cannabis and that this is not a big issue, but we want to stress that any production of drugs is linked to hidden harm. Large scale operations like this are often run by organised crime gangs. Those gangs are likely to engage in very serious violence involving weapons, such as firearms. They may also take advantage of vulnerable people, exploiting them or making them work in servitude.

"The electrical requirement to grow this many plants is also really dangerous and can be a huge fire risk, putting neighbouring properties, and lives in danger.

"It is not just a bit of cannabis, it's linked to serious criminality. That's why we are really keen to hear from people who suspect there is cannabis cultivation or drug related activity taking place in their neighbourhood.

“Every call you make to us is logged and reviewed by our local Neighbourhood Policing Teams and helps us build up an intelligence picture about what might be happening in your community. This allows us to take action and prevent your neighbourhoods from harm.”

Our enquiries are ongoing, but there is no wider risk to the community.
